First Australian Baha'i Choral Festival

Date: Sun, 06/09/2015 - 11:00am

More than 80 singers from Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Kosovo and the United States are gathering together for four days of intensive rehearsals in preparation for a beautiful concert of sacred a cappella music in various languages, including Maori, Luganda, Hindi, Church Slavonic, Arabic and Woiwurrung, of the Wurundjeri people. Many songs will be world premiered in this program of uplifting and heavenly music sung in a venue renowned for its acoustic marvels: the Sydney Baha'i Temple. All are welcome. This event is in partnership with the Sydney Sacred Music Festival (www.sydneysacredmusicfestival.org).
